

Professional Bio

Rev. Dr. Loretta Iannicelli is the Senior Pastor and President of Equip Services Inc. and is both an Ordained Minister of the Gospel and Ordained Crisis Chaplain. She has worked locally, regionally and nationally in pastoral ministries and in corporate America serving leaders, organizations, first responders, persons, and her community bringing practical care to the point of need.

Dr. Iannicelli's Pastoral Care ministry is derived from various disciplines. She holds a Doctorate Degree in Religious Education from Chesapeake Bible College and Seminary, Maryland; a Master's of Divinity Degree and Counseling Certification from Andover/Yale Divinity School (formally Andover Newton Theological School as part of the Boston Theological Institute); Specialized Crisis Chaplaincy training in trauma, disaster, and suicide from the International Critical Incident Stress Foundation (ICISF); and Healthcare Chaplaincy training through Harvard Divinity School's Field Education Program.

Equip was founded with the aim to bring a culture of care to those facing need with a belief that there is value, purpose, potential, and dignity in compassionately loving, serving, and caring for the needs of others. She leads engaging religious and educational programs as part of Equip Church, Equip Academy and Equip Care Ministries and hosts trainings and conferences on Pastoral Care initiatives that meet relevant need.

Loretta has two adult children, Anthony and Marlana, and enjoys time with their spouses Sandy and Angel, along with her two grandchildren Giovanni and Angeline.
