

Chaplain Lisa R. Dennis

Evangelist | Teacher

Equip Services, Inc.

Lisa R. Dennis is part of the Equip Academy Academic Team, and serves in the roles of teacher, advisor and coach to many currently studying across varying degrees with us at Equip Academy-Chesapeake Bible Institute, Boston.

Lisa R. Dennis is a native of Chester, Pennsylvania. She has been actively involved in her church and community for over 30 years.

Lisa is a graduate of Chester High School. She attended Cheyney State University where she studied Biology, Communications and Psychology; Harcum Jr. College where she studied Psychology and Sociology and later graduated from Chesapeake Bible College/Seminary where she received a Doctorate in Theological Studies. Lisa also graduated Neumann University in the Master of Science in Organizational and Strategic Leadership Program.

Today you can find Lisa in the City of Chester's Department of Public Affairs as Director of the Office of Community Liaisons Department, Office of Reentry, Office of Veterans Affairs, Founder of The Chester Bereavement Project and Victims Support which is a Chester Community and Neighborhood Collaborative (former Weed and Seed). Lisa served as a Police Chaplain in the Chester Police Chaplains Corp, Member for Law Enforcement Chaplains of Delaware County, member of International Conference of Police Chaplains and minister in her local, church New Jerusalem C.O.G.I.C. of Chester and holds various District and State Jurisdictional leadership positions in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania Churches of God In Christ Incorporated.

Lisa is very active in her community as a Community Organizer, a trained Trauma-Competent Professional and Facilitator of Chester real change through the City of Chester's Department of Public Affairs and Chester Police Department. She serves on several Organizational Boards and Committees in Chester, Pa and vicinity. Lisa is a graduate and member of Community Partnership Training with the Federal Bureau of Investigation Class #14 from the Philadelphia, Pennsylvania Region. She was employed as a Professional Mentor with Friends of the Children founded in Portland Oregon and as a Family Specialist with Abraxas Foundation in Philadelphia, Pa. she worked as a Support Counselor for Northwestern Human Services housed at one time in Chester at Chester High School.

Lisa is an artist/musician/singer/songwriter and author. Lisa knows and believes that it is for this appointed time for her to be here to assist with the revitalization in the city of Chester and of the nations around the world.

Lisa is an Evangelist, Chaplain, Servant, Leader, Mother, Daughter, and Sister.